November 1, 2017

LOUGH – Larry Alexander Larry passed away on November 1, 2017. Survived by his siblings Patrick Lough (Elaine), Lynda Davidson (Paul), Trudi Charest (Al), Ken Lough (Crystal) as well as nephews and nieces. He was predeceased by his parents Ella and Bill Lough. Larry was born July 5, 1955 in Prince Albert, Sk.

Larry had a contagious laugh and loved being with family & friends. He was a talented artist & sculptor and his work is highlighted in many projects throughout the Toronto scene. Larry was well known for his love for animals, especially dogs and took every opportunity to play with friend's dogs and cats. Ruby and Magic were his babies and he loved them dearly. Larry will be remembered as LARS (nickname to many in Toronto), for playing the spoons any chance he had to show off his talent (learned by his father Bill), for telling stories and playing games like cards and dice. He loved life and made many friends through his outgoing, infectious personality.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal;
Love leaves a memory no one can steal.

A Celebration of his life will be held at the Grossman's Tavern in Toronto on November 10th at 4:00 pm.
