“ Hi Sylvia & Curtis:

I was saddened when I heard from colleagues at MGCI, that you had lost your beloved daughter Laura unexpectedly. I remember having met her very briefly, but her beautiful smile and calm demeanor made an impression on me. She was blessed to have such loving and caring parents. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and yours as you go through this difficult time. Take care. “D” Elizabeth

“The most beautiful people we have known are those who have known defeat, known suffering, known struggle, known loss, and have found their way out of the depths. These persons have an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with compassion, gentleness, and a deep loving concern. Beautiful people do not just happen.” Taken from: Elisabeth Kubler-Ross

“ Dear Anderson family,

I would like to express how much of a joy it was to have known Laura and to have been able to spend our time together doing something she enjoyed.

It was a pleasure to have known her and to have had the opportunity to be one of her teammates was an honor.

I wish you my humblest of condolences.

Maurice Turner and family.

“ Dear Mr & Mrs Anderson, family and friends,
I have know Laura for over 10 years and truly valued our friendship,
I will miss our chat's to solve the problems of the world, her dedication to her family, her voice of reason, her helpful nature and her intelligient insight. It still has not sunk in that she is gone to a better place, I guess God need her more than we did....I will miss her during this Xmas season when we all get together to bless our good fortunes...Laura, I will miss you and will only have good words and memories. You will not be forgotten, love and heartfelt sympathies to all, Your friend always Neva Kotsopoulos

“ Dear Sylvia and Mr. Anderson,

I cannot imagine your pain but have prayed that you feel the Comforter's touch tangible at this time, and that you are surrounded by His peace that passes all understanding. Prayerfully, as each moment passes, you will be sustained by many warm and cherished memories of your beautiful child, and less sorrow at her physical absence. Trusting that your expected hope is to see Laura again, knowing that she's wrapped in the loving arms of our heavenly Father. God bless you both and your families.

“Laura was a beautiful person inside and out. I will miss her beautiful smile and calm and quiet demeanor. She was an intelligent person but every unassuming in her approach.

At this time of year particularly, I will miss her baking, especially her "very crispy on the outside soft on the inside gluten free Almond Cookies.

She blessed the world with her presence and gone too soon but will not be forgotten.

Rest in Peace Lovey Lady - God Bless

“Sylvia, I heard about Laura through Kelly and Cheryl. I obviously didn't know her too well and I remember her as a beautiful, gentle young lady. No parent should have to lose their child and I can't imagine exactly what you are feeling, though I have seen how this kind of loss can affect a parent. I will pray that you are able to find the strength to get through this difficult time with the support of family and friends.
