Leona Anita Davis (nee Le Noury)

August 21, 1944 - December 9, 2023

Sadly on December 9, 2023, Leona Davis passed away peacefully at St. Michael's Hospital after a long battle with heart failure.

Her courage and determination to come back from numerous arthritic and especially heart surgeries over the years was truly incredible. Though her heart had weakened, her beautiful smile and gentle good humour never changed.

Lee loved travelling, watching British series on TV, and older music from Ian, Merle, Billy Joe to Neil to Andre. Mostly she loved her flowers, her garden and her home decorating for every occasion. She had a wonderful talent with all three for just the right thing in just the right place. She also made the best shortbread cookies and maraschino chocolates ever at Christmas time.

Lee will be lovingly missed by her husband and best friend for fifty-three years Ron, son Neil (Tania), grandson Derrick, nephew James, brother John (Carol), sister Phyllis (Art), sister-in-law Joyce (Russ), long time friends Gayle, Janice, Linda, Jen and all of the friends and relatives whose lives she touched and who touched hers with the deepest of kindness.

As per her request cremation has taken place.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation or the Arthritis Society.

“ Lee I can't even begin to tell you how much Russ and I looked so forward to our trips that mostly you planned thankfullyFort Myers's drinks on the beach, all the restaurants you found, Naples for lunch, Nashville our stays at KOA , hanging out at Nashville Palace, Logan's for dinner ,,shows at the Ryman, visits to the places you found on blogs you followed like Loretta Lynn's ranch, the pumpkin festival and every place you wanted to visit always had little shops we would spend lots of time in ...Although the Cracker Barrel shops we took the longest but good times....one of the best memories was all four of us in our Fiat and ur walker sticking out of the back driving down Riley Parkway in Nashville just to go to a mall (oh and grab ur broken car at the dealers) but it was hilarious..... will even miss ur fear of bridges throwing ur sweater over ur head so u couldn't see ,, , oh the trip when we were coming home and the interstate closed due to falling rocks so we had to take an hour long detour up high in a mountain with no sides and how petrified we were ,, they say memories are golden ,, I think it's true ... I will miss our hour long chats ...we both will miss you and will never forget our good times Love Joyce and ur fav Russy
