

Ms. Leslie Bickert

March 17, 2013

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

SF

“ I just read about Leslie's passing, although we have not been in touch for years, I still have very fond memories of her! I live in Holland and Leslie and I were colleques at the Royal York hotel in Toronto. We always had lots of fun and when I went back to Holland we kept on writing to one and other. After a while we lost contact. Recently I moved houses and found Leslie's letters she wrote to me. I thought I look her up and maybe we can get in touch again. Then I found out that she passes away! It shocked me, I was not expecting this. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends. I will burn a candle for her today.

Kind regards,
Sylvia Frauenfelder

sylvia Frauenfelder - December 20, 2019 at 06:03 AM

SH

“ I just heard of Leslie's passing. We were school mates together at Edgewood. I left Edgewood with my family as we relocated to Wales for several years before my return to Canada. I will always remember the parting gift Leslie gave me, - one of those 7-Up lights that were so popular. I also still have my classes card wishing me well, with Leslie's signature. I will treasure it even more. While I did not know you in your adult life, you were such a great friend at Edgewood. You are in my heart always. R.I.P.

Sue Harper

Sue Harper - March 04, 2019 at 09:19 PM

SB

“ I am so sorry to hear about Leslie's passing, and my thoughts are with you. Leslie was my best friend when we lived in Scarborough - from age 10 - 15. We spent a lot of time finding great books to read together, coming up with ideas for our own stories, writing them, laughing, sharing secrets, swimming in the pool. I will always remember Les at that time as one of the most imaginative, empathetic, sweet, insightful people I've ever met - then, or now. She was, at that time, an "old soul" who could see and understand things that the majority of people could not. We re-connected in our late teens, and I'm happy that we did. We lost contact after that. But over the years, Leslie never left my memory - a wide smile, large, sparkly brown eyes, a shared raised eyebrow, and always, something new to ponder after one of our discussions.
Rest in peace, Leslie.
Love, Sally Benson.

Sally Benson - March 23, 2013 at 06:03 PM