“ Adventures in Disney with Trevor, Black River Barge sailing, trips to the track and Rickey's, exciting Christmases and intelligent football conversation are just a few of my favourite memories of my uncle, Weasie. But who could ever forget "A Flowering Plant" or the best backyard croquet course ever constructed? Weasie was such a selfless individual from family to church. He got his pleasure from pleasing others. To me, Les always was more. I'll miss you dearly, but our experiences will never be forgotten.

“ I am left with many good memories of my eldest brother, far too many to mention here. These are just a few of my favorites....I remember us watching All My Children together everyday while devouring an entire McCains Deep and Delicious chocolate cake. I know he would never admit it to others, but yes he did watch Erica Cain with me every day for the last few weeks of my pregnancy. I will remember our times at the track with the "family penc" and the football Sundays on McCowan . Buster the little "scooter boy" and the bribing he had to do with Teddy in order to get her home. The fun he had constructing the Black River Barge for Jeremy and Trevor, and the games of Balderdash!! I will always think of him when I hear the words, "a flowering plant". Yes we had many laughs together Les, and a few tears shed as well. I will miss those times and I will think of them often. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace Weasie. Until we meet again.....xxoo

“ I have known Dc. Sharples for more than 10 years at a New Apostolic Church in Newmarket. My first impression with this man of God was his smile, his humbleness and his selflessness. He has taught me so much for all these years and I always looked up to him as one of my role models. When I could not find strength to move on, I looked at him and how he served God without complaining even after his retirement he still drove around picking up children to Church and on the way home he sometimes treated them with food or even took them to the movies.

He was so good at driving, one time I wrote on his greeting card: "Blessed are the hands that drive the Church van." and he chuckled.

I know many people have been touched by his kindness and generosity and for him, to live is Christ and to die is gain. (Phil. 1:21) I so miss him, in fact, he is in my heart and I am looking forward to the day that we all will see him again face to face when Christ returns.

Let's keep praying for him and I am sure he is praying for all of us, too and may our dear Heavenly Father rest his soul and may he find peace and blissfulness in paradise.

Much love and respect,

James Bo

“ I hadn't been in my families life in quite some time. On Grandmas Birthday, Melissa, Ellen and myself visited Aunt Jenny and Uncle Gary. We saw quite a few relatives from the Sharples "Crew". Uncle Les opened his arms and accepted us with no questions. Always loved him for his fun loving lifestyle. You will be missed Uncle Les

“ Les - I am going to miss our discussions about movies and TV shows, horse racing and other sports, and life in general. Your great sense of humour was what I enjoyed the most. You have left a great void in our lives.

“ I love my grandpa a lot. I really miss him. If he never came in my life I would never be so happy. So thank you very much for coming into my life. We always had a great time together. I liked walking down to fairy lake with him. I enjoyed walking with him but one day I got carried away a little bit because, I asked him if we could walk for a 1000 miles. But of course if we walked that much, I would be so tired and he would too. He was a lovely person. He also helped a lot of people too. I think about him a lot. But one day I'm going to see him in Heaven. But I will always miss you and you will always be in my heart.

“ I do not recall my first meeting with wheezy but it still feels like I have known him all my life. It did not matter of how long it had been since we had last seen each other but it felt like no time had passed and our conversations just picked up where we had stopped last. I had a lot respect for wheezy for all his selfless and giving acts. He will be one of the very few that have influenced me in the short time that I got to spend with him. It really was an honour wheezy! God bless...
