

Ms. Linda Susan MacKay

January 6, 2015

With heavy hearts, our entire family mourns the passing of our beloved Mother, Grandmother, Aunt, and Sister Linda Mackay.

Born December 8th, 1949 to the late Peggy and David Mackay, Linda passed in Scarborough during the late hours of January 6th, 2015. Linda will be fondly remembered for the unconditional love she had for her family; for her selflessness, patience, understanding, intelligence, grace, and beauty.

She is survived by her brother Barry, sister Janet, nephew David, nieces Lisa and Tammy, daughters Jennifer and Leanne, sons Darren, Christopher, and Derek, and grandchildren Alexandra, Aidan, Kyla, Jaxon, Landon, and Myles.

For eternity we will love and miss you sweet mother, until we meet again.

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I did not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.

My own mother passed 3 months ago. Our family found comfort in this poem:

*We little knew that morning, God was going to call your name.
In life we we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone,
for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide,
and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

“ *After the clouds, the sunshine; after the winter, the spring; after the shower, the rainbow; for life is a changeable thing. After the night, the morning, bidding all darkness cease, after life's cares and sorrows, the comfort and sweetness of peace.
Forever in our hearts... Never forgotten

Mom,

I cannot even put into words the pain that I'm feeling. I lost my mom, my friend and the best grandma there ever was. My life without you is empty. I think about you every second of the day. I miss you like crazy!! Please watch over us and protect us, and please keep showing us signs that you are here with us. We love you mom. It's not goodbye...It's until we meet again. XO
