“ Lio always said that each of us has to 'row our own boat'. When this is understood, we accept that one day our boat will come ashore and we will step forth into a new land. I pray that his boat lands upon the good beach and that he finds grace in the eyes of the Lord.

May you stand amongst the Saints on that Glorious day my brother and may you find rest in the Lord.

“ Lio was my uncle. He always enjoyed a good meal and a good laugh. His advice and thoughts on life was always welcomed and will be dearly missed. He might be gone from this world but not from our hearts. We will always love you and cherish your memory. Your niece Sindy.
