“ Cats can survive long falls from amazing heights. In fact one New York cat fell 32 stories and survived with minor injuries. I bet that cat and his family were feeling pretty fortunate because he survived. Lois' family and friends are all feeling pretty unhappy because we lost our good friend and mother.

I am especially unhappy to have lost you, Lois. You were my closest friend from the time I first met you as a four year old girl next door. I am so sorry to have you gone and so is my family. My time is getting near and I too will be joining you soon., Lois.

*Love you always,
Jean McCabe*
