

Mrs. Lori Ann Petruga

May 13, 2017

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

JL

“ Dear Rick, Fran, Bob, Pat, Bud, Don Parker and Family & Randy Petruca & Family;
My heart aches for you all upon learning of Lori's passing just now. Eventhough we drifted apart over the years, Lori was my best friend from childhood through to our early teens when we spent oodles of time together making millions of memories and getting into all kinds of mischief together between Toronto and Bobcaygeon. I'm so sorry for your loss. I want you all to know that some of my happiest days for me as kid were because I had Lori with me. Xoxo Jill Lawrence (nee Hannigan)

Jill Lawrence - November 25, 2017 at 08:07 PM

PA

“ My sister and I would laugh hysterically over nothing. I was 12 yrs older than her so was like a Mom to her when she was very young. I took her everywhere with me. I think that was my way of pretending to be a grown-up.
My sister had her problems but she was a smart kind loving person. There wasn't an animal or bird that she wouldn't nurse back to health and was very upset if they didn't make it. I miss her every day. XOXO

Pat - October 19, 2017 at 06:14 PM