Lorraine was a very happy person, always smiling and laughing. She loved her family and friends very much and would always enjoy going boutique shopping and enjoy a night eating out. Lorraine liked to share her traditional family recipes especially her “fried scone” with people and made delicious Indian Tacos. She would always make sure that no one would leave the house hungry. Lorraine was a big part of her community, teaching the Ojibwe Language, Her favorite expressions was “Ngii-chi naki” “cuz” or “Oh shit!”. Lorraine was also part of Native Friendship Senior Group and Wigwamen Senior Group. She enjoyed making shawls for the family and always sewed them by hand. Lorraine was a bright and colorful person and you always noticed it by the bright (very red) and flashy sequined clothing she wore. Lorraine had a big heart, helping families in need, as well as being a vice-president in a homeless shelter. Lorraine loved all her pets from Sunny, Josie, and Belle.

“ I'll never forget how hospitable Momma was whenever I would come to visit, and how she treated everyone who ce through her door like family. She made me realize how delicious chocolate cake is with whipped filling and she introduced me to her delicious Indian Tacos. We'll miss her immensely and will never forget her. ?
