

Lynda Iona Kirk

January 7, 2026

On January 7, 2026 at 1:30 PM my beautiful sister passed away. If you felt a gentle nudge around that time, or the flashing of your lights, it may have been Lynda saying hello and goodbye for the last time. Lynda was a beautiful sister to me, a bright light and a wonderful friend to the world. She was a wife, an aunt and a great aunt and she looked after all of us. She was thoughtful and loving. She believed in angels and she loved cats and all her friends. As I look around her condominium, I can see the love that she put into everything, the clothes she wore, the products she used, her decorations, her Knick knacks and artwork, the gifts she gave to her friends, all of it radiating her love of life. She was kind and gentle and fun. She had class and was also tough as nails and, most of all, grateful for what she had. She did crossword puzzles right to the very end. She was organized and meticulous, yet, she was ready to party at any given moment. She was silly, but she was serious and seriously brave. As I watched in the last month of her life, friend after a friend would phone her or visit to say their goodbyes. She saw them all with grace and love and I was amazed at how this lady was so much more than just my sister. She brought light into this world and gave us another reason to be grateful. Like all of her friends and family, I love her very much and I will miss her terribly. As we talked and laughed in her final days, she made me promise to tell everyone these parting words:

“Life’s journey is not to arrive at the grave safely, in a well preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways totally used up, shouting, MAN WHAT A RIDE!"

Farewell, Big Sis. May you become our Angel. I love you.

Tribute Wall

MB

“ My condolences to Lynda's family. I am so sorry for your loss.

I was privileged to know Lynda for many, many years. We used to go to Mister K' every Thursday night of pay week. She was the maid of honour at my wedding on 1996. One time Lynda and I took a last minute trip to Florida just to get away for a weekend.

Lynda was a beautiful person both inside and out. You couldn't find a better friend.

I will miss you Lynda

*With love
Miriam (Glenda)*

Miriam Kleiman (Glenda Baker) - February 08 at 12:36 PM

AP

“ I moved to The Beach in 1983 and met Lynda shortly thereafter. Always fun with jokes and stories to tell. When I bought the pub, known as Wheelers, Lynda (and her "Becky and Sue") would become the most popular regular that we all looked forward to hanging out with. After selling the bar, we still continued our friendship over all the years and our world is a little sadder for her loss. With hugs and love, Aileen

Aileen Pollock - February 01 at 02:51 PM

JL

“ I met Lynda in a group of ladies from National Trust. We deposited $25 each month for 6 months and then got our $150 back and we splurged at upscale restaurants. So much fun. My condolences to Lynda's family.

Joan Lindsey - January 31 at 09:05 AM

TM

“ My friend Lynda: I am so happy that you're now in a better place. I thank God for your friendship. Knowing you as a friend has been a constant treasure that has helped me enjoy my life. I particularly remember our adventures, including trips to Niagra, and a trip to Nova Scotia to visit our friend Anne-Marie and attend her son's wedding. That trip is unforgettable, and I'll always fondly remember the fun on our journey over the Cabot Trail. You will forever be in my heart. May the Angels be with you!! 🙏😊😊

Teg Mammo - January 19 at 04:14 PM

PB

“ *Condolences to Lynda's family, friends and loved ones from CB, George and the Barker family.
We fondly recall first meeting Lynda at Ma Barker's home 45 years ago. When Lynda first walked thru the door, it was a breath of fresh air for all of the Barker clan. Dressed casually chic, hair styled and nails to perfection. What also stood out, was the smile, laughter and being a 'Little Mischievous'.
Thank you Lynda for all the get togethers over the years that were always so much fun and memorable.
A loyal and trusted friend to CB and George for so many years!!
Save a seat at your "PARTY TABLE" Lynda for all your family, friends and loved one's.
We know it will be a long one.*

Peggy Barker - January 19 at 11:55 AM

VE

My deepest sympathy to Lynda's family. As part of her work family, I loved her positive outlook. I will miss her warm smile and playful nature. Take comfort in knowing that Lynda left a piece of her heart with those whom she loved.

With warmth and affection,

Veronica

Veronica Eastman - January 19 at 06:54 PM

AL

“ Sending condolences across the miles to Lynda's brother, Gord Lamont, Lynda's family, and her other friends. How does one restrict comments after over 50 years of friendship? Lynda's legacy will live on in our collective memories because she was one of those special people with an unlimited capacity for love and kindness to everyone. She had a heart as big as Grand Canyon! She was thoughtful, elegant, fun-loving, sometimes naughty, yet focused and serious when necessary. Her friends mattered to her. She was excellent for staying in touch and never forgot an important event like a birthday. We walked the picket line together, had lots of fun with mutual friends at MR K's; in the Victoria St to Yonge St Arcade, for many years; got tipsy together at the annual "hit and giggle" annual golf days; we partied in Toronto, Puerto Vallarta, and in later years after I moved back east, we partied in Nova Scotia, and also in Toronto on my visits there. Her friends will know what I mean when I talk about her special brand of CFM party shoes. On one of her trips to Nova Scotia with mutual friends, Joe & Cathie Figueira, Lynda had Joe stop at the end of our country driveway and she lie on the hood of his car to make her grand entrance. My husband roared and commented that she was like the figureheads on ships that may represent good fortune, national pride, or protection. I already miss her voice and our phone calls. I treasure the Christmas decorations she gave me over the years. I believe that our beautiful Lynda is now singing with the Angels, pain-free and breathing freely. She has probably also made a grand entrance into Heaven and she is now enjoying her just rewards with those who have gone before her, including her Mom, sister Debbie, my Gord, Joe, Auntie Ruth, Eli , Betty Daschoudry, and many others. Until we meet again, Lynda, rest in peace and enjoy your just rewards. Love your Long Family in Nova Scotia

Anne Marie Long - January 18 at 11:27 PM

JM

“ *Kind and lovely neighbour as well as a yoga enthusiast as I am.
Miss her.
John Myers*

John Myers - January 14 at 08:35 PM

EB

“ *Esther Burt lit a candle in memory of Lynda
Kirk*

Esther Burt - January 13 at 07:20 PM

JC

“ Lynn we shared five decades of very close friendship and I will miss you every day. We went thru marriages, divorces and family deaths but we also had many great times together. You were the kindest and most generous of spirit of anyone I've ever met, You supported me in ways you didn't even realize. Some of the things you came out with were outrageous. I heard my first dirty joke from you and was so shocked for a minute I didn't say anything and then I laughed like hell. I miss our daily 8:30 phone calls the most as I could tell you anything. You enriched my life Lyn and I will be forever grateful for having had you in it.

Your bestie, Jules

Julie Christie - January 12 at 04:48 PM

SW

“ Lynda was a great lady and neighbour. She will be missed by all of us at 757.

Love Sharon

Sharon Wardlaw - January 12 at 03:04 PM

SM

“ So many memories, so many stories - especially of your escapades with my sister Shelley (but don't worry I will not be posting any of these). . You have been a part of our family for over 60 years and brought joy to all of us. Your kindness, forgiveness and loving nature will not be forgotten. Then there is your red lipstick and your red nails - so you! There are no words to express how much you will be missed but whenever we see a rainbow it will remind us of you - a bright, unique light that will continue to shine down on all of us Forever in our hearts💕. Love and hugs, from Sue (Fevreau) Myers & Roy Main, Shelley (Fevreau) & John Hale, Ryan & Sylvia Myers, Shane Sauve, Jamie & Bridget Sauve and their children Jessica and Camryn

Sue Myers - January 11 at 04:09 PM

TM

My friend Lynda: I am so happy that you're now in a better place. I thank God for your friendship. Knowing you as a friend has been a constant treasure that has helped me enjoy my life. I particularly remember our adventures, including trips to Niagra, and a trip to Nova Scotia to visit our friend Anne-Marie and attend her son's wedding. That trip is unforgettable, and I'll always fondly remember the fun on our journey over the Cabot Trail. You will forever be in my heart. May the Angels be with you!! 🙏🙏🙏

Teg Mammo - January 19 at 01:56 PM

JB

“ Lynda was a truly lovely friend whose compassion, laughter, and caring heart brought light to those around her. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered always. 🙏🌹

Jill Baker - January 11 at 12:37 PM

SM

“ It was such a pleasure knowing Lynda. She was so much fun and so very brave. I will miss her dearly. Love Sherrill

Sherrill Middleton - January 11 at 09:58 AM

ST

“ For over 50 years I was so lucky to have Lynda as my friend. She always had my back. We had wonderful times together. Dinners, parties and getaways. Memories I will always cherish. Lynda was happy in a way that filled rooms. Loud in the way someone who truly loved life could be. The world is a little quieter without her but my world is louder because of the love she gave me. Thank you for being my best friend.

Susan Telford - January 10 at 04:13 PM

KL

“ Karen Lee lit a candle in memory of Lynda Kirk

Karen Lee - January 10 at 02:08 PM

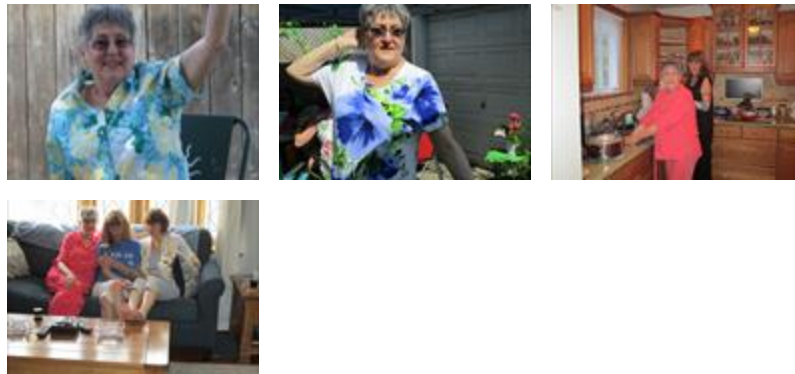

ML

“ Well, twenty years just passed by so fast, I will be forever grateful you were part of that time. I will carry fond memories of our little group at table 2 for our "Hen-N-Gossip" Saturdays that brought joy, laughter and a fair bit of silliness to us all. Much love Lynda with a "Y" or another nickname "Lady Lamont", you are a treasure never to be repeated. Markus & George.

Markus Leingruener - January 10 at 10:59 AM

HA

“ 4 files added to the album Lynda Kirk

Harry - January 10 at 09:14 AM

SB

*Dear "Crazy Lynda"
So much laughter and wonderful memories you brought to our family and Pebblehill Square!
You will always be remembered for your kookie sense of humour, your jet black hair and those red lips and matching nails!
My fondest memory was at my wedding reception you and my boss were dancing fell to the ground and you were lying on the on top of him both frozen!
Your wonderful smile and loving heart has touched many.
Love, Susie
(Barker)*

Susan MacLean nee Barker - January 10 at 09:50 PM

GH

“ Gessica haaae lit a candle in memory of Lynda Kirk

Gessica haaae - January 10 at 08:53 AM

GH

“ Awww aunty Lyn. You will be deeply missed by all of us life behind. We have peace in knowing you are up there with my mom Deborah Peloso and grandma Iona weir watching over us. We love you always and forever. You will always be fondly remembered, you were an amazing aunt and great aunt . Rest well.....till we meet again 🍷

Gessica haaae - January 10 at 08:52 AM

BB

“ Lynda's final words to her Sister in the obituary are definitely her. She worked hard and played hard. I had the pleasure of working, travelling and doing Union things with Lynda over many years. We had many laughs and enjoyed many of the same friends and ended up in the same trouble on numerous occasions and we denied it all. Lynda was a wonderful light in a much too serious world. She was gentle yet tough, loving but demanding of others to be the same, kind but not looking for praise.....just a great person and she will be missed by many. My thoughts go out to her family and friends that have lost a good soul. My friend "Lynda" with a "Y".

Betty Bannon - January 09 at 10:24 PM