

Ms. Margaret June De Agazio

December 22, 2017

Margaret June DeAgazio (nee Clarke)

June was a feisty, fiercely intelligent and articulate, no-nonsense Scottish woman, who passed away peacefully on the evening of December 22, 2017. She was the only child and daughter of Leonard Clarke of Manchester, England, and Margaret Mary Clarke (nee Beattie) of Glasgow, Scotland. June is survived by her daughter, Therese (Tia) DeAgazio and her fiancé, David Csikasz.

June was born in Manchester, England, in 1936, and was raised in Glasgow Scotland, when her father joined the English army from 1939-1945. June was raised by her mother, Peg, along with Peg's two older sisters, Marion Beattie and Catherine Beattie, who made sure she had a proper lady's education with the Carmelite nuns at Holy Rood Convent School. From these women, June fostered her strong sense of honesty, fairness and integrity, and the courage of her convictions. She was a kind, generous and loyal friend, and could always be trusted to "do the right thing".

June apprenticed for several years and was awarded the designation of Lady's Hairdresser, winning top awards, of which she was very proud. She immigrated to Toronto in 1959.

Donations to the Alzheimer's Society would be deeply appreciated.
