“ Margo and Shavi welcomed my oldest child into Mother Nature Daycare on its opening day and I knew right away I could manage the stress of returning to work with Katie in their care. What followed was magical years, first for Kate, then for her brother Craig. My gratitude to Margo for being the kind, thoughtful, funny and imaginative person she was, knows no bounds. I can still sing all the words to the Mother Nature Daycare song all these years later: “The best daycare is Mother Nature and we go there every day....Mother Nature is the place for all the lucky children, and I am a Mother Nature child”. Thank you Margo, for who you were, from myself and all the other lucky Mother Nature mums and dads.

“ To Margo's family, Please accept my condolences. My friend Margo was someone to admire. She loved her family, was a devoted friend and a smart business woman. Shavi her business partner and close friend, Marilyn a dear friend and I would meet once a month back in the day when we were all busy; Margo and Shavi starting up and running a successful day care, Marilyn tackling her on-the-go lifestyle and me struggling to make a name for myself in the not-for-profit world. We'd catch up, give and take advice and generally have a great time. The suppers were a blast. Margo's gentle nature covered a steely resolve: she held us all accountable. Recently, Margo's health deteriorated rapidly. As was typical of her no-nonsense style, Margo resolved to face death straight on. No doubt, she is holding Death accountable. Gina Dalkin-Davis
