“ An inspiring woman! By example, she taught me to just keep moving--letting curiosity guide me from one adventure to another--and volunteering wherever an opportunity presents itself. She worked hard at keeping in touch with friends, which is why she had many from Vancouver to Halifax. Ewa Jarmicka in Toronto

“ Marjerie touched so many lives in so many ways... I knew her for only a small portion (15 years) of her long life (96!), and quickly grew to love her as a great companion on our many visits to my trailer up in Buckhorn; our regular Saturday-evening stints at the Out-of-the-Cold Shelter at Blythwood Church; our monthly jaunts to the North Toronto Historical Association Meetings at her beloved Orchardview Library; etc., etc. She was a proud Canadian, a loyal friend, a determined woman proud of her independence and abiding principles... We'll miss her!
