“ It is with a very saddened heart that we write this message of condolences about a wonderful aunt who just left us, she was always so welcoming when you came to the farm, funny, kind caring, full of spunk and life. Also did I say a great cook, big family reunions every summer such great times and memories, we're all going to miss her sorely. But I'm sure she'll liven up things up above quite a bit to say the least.
