“ Today would have been your Birthday... 66! Happy Birthday Mama! ☐ Writing that small number makes me incredibly sad. You left far too young! I have a bird feeder now... it makes me think of you. Missing you xo

“ Her Australian family are truly saddened by Mary's passing. After a lifetime apart, we were fortunate to have met Mary, Gene and Nathan when they made their big trip 'down under'. Those beautiful words by her friends are true. She made a difference and she will always be remembered as a genuine, kind, caring 'go getter' who let nothing stand in her way. Rest in Peace Mary. Your memory always be held with love in our hearts.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Mary's passing. She was a bright light for so many and had the uncanny ability to put a smile on anyone's face. I was fortunate to work with Mary many years ago and I was always impressed with how she would make all of customers feel special. May her light continue to shine in her family's hearts and memories. Gene and family, please accept my most sincere condolences.

“ Dear Gene, Nathan, Pam, Theresa and Mark. That’s a beautiful , honourable, true description of Mary, capturing her very essence. She was a great sister-in- law and friend. Heaven gained a very special Angel this week. I’m certain she’s already stirred up some laughter and fun “up there”. She is forever in your hearts. I hope you always feel her presence around you!

I guess that is the way it goes... sadly. Thank you for taking the time... and to speak w/ Mom in her last days. I know she heard you. Love, Theresa xoxo

“ Mary was a beautiful soul and I am grateful to have found her only a few years ago. We had many long conversations over the phone and she made me feel so loved and accepted when I wasn't sure how I would be received. Seeing pictures of her and the ones she shared with me of my mother was the first time in my life where I saw a physical resemblance to someone. I noticed how her eyes squint when she smiles in photos the same as mine do. Her joy and love were very visible and contagious. It still makes me smile thinking of her pictures. I also noticed in the short time that I knew her how similar we are in many ways. She sent me a package once with a book in it that I had just taken out of the library to read. I felt a very strong connection to her. I only wish that I had been able to meet her in person.

You made Mary's lifelong wish to find her sister Annie's daughter come true when you found and called her

Leah, Thank you for taking the time to share such a nice story about my Mom. My eyes filled as you mention how her eyes squint when she smiles... as I've been told that before too... and I would love to think I have something that resembles my Mom! In fact, my Mom used to tell me long ago that I reminded her of Annie. Not sure if she ever shared that w/ you, but I never forgot it b/c I had such fond memories of your Mom. I wish I wasn't so young when she was taken. I would have loved to spend more time. I guess we always do. Your Mom called me Bubbles. I'll never forget. And my Mom loved her dearly. I'm sure they are happy to be together again; my Mom dearly missed all of her siblings. Thank you again for your words... they provide comfort. Big hugs, Theresa

“ I've known Mary for 30 years, we lived just up the road on Southgate. In the evening Wayne and I would sit out back with a few drinks, I would say to Wayne, let's go see Mary and he always said it's too late, but I would always go and Mary was always out back. Wayne would follow and the 4 of us would have a few more for the road. I think of the nights very often. Mary ,I'm sure you found Wayne up there, I told him you there. Rest my friend. Lola McGhee

Your impromptu, spontaneous late night backyard visits over the years always made a great night even better. Mary enjoyed each and every one
