

Mary Gail Martin (née Orange)

August 3, 2024

Mary "Noni" Gail Martin (née Orange), born on April 6, 1949, in Toronto, ON, passed away peacefully on August 3, 2024, at the age of 75, in Newmarket, ON. She was a woman of considerable strength, with a feisty yet loving and caring disposition that endeared her to all who knew her.

She leaves behind a legacy of love in her family, including her devoted daughter, Traci McKee and her husband Kevin; her son, Scott Martin; and her brother, Bill O'Hearn and his wife Angie. Her memory will be cherished by her grandchildren, Natasha O'Dell with her husband James, Joshua Denham with his wife Valerie, Christopher Martin, and Natalie McKee. Her great-grandchildren Jack, Logan, and Maeve will miss their beloved Noni dearly. She is predeceased by her grandson, James McKee.

A Celebration of Life will be planned to bring together family and friends in honour of Gail (Noni) at a future date. The family kindly requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be offered to the Southlake Regional Hospital in her memory. Gail's (Noni's) presence will be profoundly missed, and her spirit will forever be a guiding light to those she touched.
