“ Why don't I just call, It's been a few days. Over and over in my mind it replays.

Why don't I just call, by now it's been a week. Oh crap! I forgot I have to go there, do that, tomorrow we will speak.

It's been almost 2 weeks now, I better give her a call.

4 messages, 3 texts later with no response at all.

It feels like an eternity to find out the reason you're not around.

Turns out that you're body is in fact safe and sound.

I didn't just call my friggin mum, now I'll never get to say goodbye.

It is in these times, I hope what everyone tells me is true.

That you no longer hold any pain, or sadness inside of you.

Now everyday I say it out loud in the hopes you're around and hear me.

Good Morning, Good Night, I love you Mom, I feel ok, you're finally free.

“ It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Millie Watson, age 64, at her home on February 22, 2018. Late daughter of Theadore Voigt, and Dirkje Voigt. She will be greatly missed by her children, Jeremy Klecanda, of Milton Ont, and Michelle Watson (Miranda Crane) of Hamilton, Ont. Also, her siblings, Peggy Voigt, and Robert Voigt. She also leaves behind, her beloved chihuahua Jasmine. Cremation has taken place and a celebration of life will be held at the Legion, Branch 43, on March 10th, from 1pm-4pm, located at 471 Simcoe Street South, Oshawa, Ont. Come bring sunshine to this cloudy day with your memories and funny stories.

JO

Your mom was a special lady Michelle, like I said “one in a million”. She is free now and looking down on her children with love, flying with the Angels! Xoxo
Sending u all Much Love 💕, Light & Strength.
