

Mrs. Mona Brown (nee Erenberg)

September 19, 2010

Mona died at Sunnybrook Hospital on September 19, 2010 after several years dealing with serious health problems. A loving partner to husband Tom Brown for 53 years she will be greatly missed. She was an inspiration over the years to her family and many friends. A loving mother to her children Keir and Colin. Grandmother to David, Robin, Rebecca, Tom and Amber and great-grandmother to Destiny, Abigail, Dallas and Kayley. There will be a celebration of Mona's life at Don Heights Unitarian Congregation, 18 Wynford Drive, Toronto at 1 pm on Sunday, October 3rd. Memorial donations may be made to Habitat for Humanity, Toronto or to the charity of your choice.

www.torontohabitat.on.ca

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Tom
We feel sad about Mona's death, and think of you a lot.
Always remember how informed Mona and you were about current events and social conditions.
We really hope you're OK.
Bob and Helen##imported-begin##Bob & Helen Hansen##imported-end##

September 27, 2010 at 07:57 AM

“ Gramma was the strongest woman I knew. She impacted everyone she met, and we all miss her with everything in our hearts. Stay strong grandpa, lets not mourn her death, but celebrate her amazing life. Love you always grandma.
Rebecca Brown (Mona's granddaughter)##imported-begin##Rebecca Brown##imported-end##

September 25, 2010 at 07:01 PM

“ Tom -

Ed and I are very saddened by Mona's death and will miss her.

Enid##imported-begin##Enid & Ed Kammin##imported-end##

September 25, 2010 at 05:50 PM

“ Tom, I want to express my sympathy on your wife's passing which I read about in Star. I know it had been a long hard struggle for her and tht you have a wonderfull support for her. May she rest in peace.##imported-begin##Pat Szego##imported-end##

September 24, 2010 at 07:10 AM