“ I sit here lost without you Mom but know you would want me to be strong. You have always been my mentor, my confidant, my best friend. One of the strongest women I have known and the kindest. You are so very missed and loved. Was so hard to say goodbye but I am grateful to have been there to tell you how much I loved you in your final moments. Rest in peace Mom, I love you.

Only One Mother

*Hundreds of stars in the pretty sky,
Hundreds of shells on the shore together,
Hundreds of birds that go singing by,
Hundreds of birds in the sunny weather.
Hundreds of dewdrops to greet the dawn,
Hundreds of bees in the purple clover,
Hundreds of butterflies on the lawn,
But only one mother the wide world over.*

Auntie Millie was a real Gem! She certainly was lived by everyone who knew her. She was kind, thoughtful generous, and just a real good soul all around. She will certainly be missed. Rest in peace Auntie.

Aunt Millie was a kind and caring person. I loved her sense of humour and how mischievous she could be. I am thankful that I was able to visit with her a few times as an adult. Those memories will always be with me. ❤️

I have not seen Aunt Millie since my Dad's funeral in 2000, but I have fond memories of the time we shared together on that date. It was always nice to speak to her on the phone. My condolences to all of you.
