

Nicole Fair

December 5, 2024

Nicole Fair

Tragically, a victim of an overdose in her 35th year.

Loved daughter of Robert and Barbara (Prince). Special friend and cousin of Sarah Gibb.

Will be fondly remembered by family and friends.

“Those we love don’t go away, they walk beside us everyday.

Unseen, unheard but always near,

Still loved, still missed and held so dear”

May Nicole rest in eternal peace free of her earthly struggles.

Memorial donations may be made to Breakaway Community Services
Toronto.

“ I remember when she was laying besides me, cuddling, until I got that ticklish feeling as I gazed into her dark brown eyes.

My lips was half an inch apart from hers, while the whole world just kinda froze.

I said, "Senpai, when I pout my lips like this..... I was expecting you to kiss me."

Then she kissed me.

Rest in peace, I will always miss you.

“ I'm so sorry for your immeasurable loss; Barb and Rob.

I will remember Nicky fondly as the adventurous little girl next door who adored her cat Spooky and playing with my sister.

May she rest in peace.

“ Rest well, cousin. I am so sorry. I will always remember the summers by the pool growing up, and the way you always took care of Myah.

Life was unfair to you. We were never as close as you and her, but I will miss you. In peace, Nic.

“ I have so many strong fond memories of Nicole as she grew into an adult. We shared confidences and stories of challenges faced. I am so sorry that she was unable to overcome the illness that took her.

“ Dear Barb and Rob - I am deeply saddened to hear of your beloved daughter Nicole's passing. She was a vibrant, kind soul... I will always remember the joy and zest she brought to our family when she babysat my kids all those years ago. Her warmth and beautiful spirit will never be forgotten. My heart goes out to you two, to Sarah, your family and all loved ones during this incredibly difficult time. May she rest in peace, and may her memory be a blessing to all who knew her.

“ I remember Nicole as a kid. She had beautiful, big twinkly eyes and long lashes and endless curiosity and excitement about the world. She used to love visiting our cottage and we loved having her. She recently reached out to me to express her condolences after my dad died. We shared a few fond memories. I hope she is in a better place. Much love to Rob and Barb and Sarah.
