

Mrs. Nimet Basha

July 5, 2013

April 1, 1954 - July 5, 2013

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Nimet Basha (nee Gjurgjeali). She died peacefully, surrounded by her loving family, after a year-long fight with cancer. Predeceased by her parents and her sister Sevim, she is survived by her loving husband Orliq, sons Roland (Kim), Fisnik (Mjellma) and Diellor; granddaughters Hana, Amelie, and Anisa; sisters Hyrmet, Sebahat and Myrvet, brothers Skender, Fatmir and Rexhep and the extended family and friends near and far.

Nimet was born in Prizren, Kosovo. She met her husband and life partner in high school. In Prizren, she worked as a travel agent for over 20 years; survived the war to move to Canada with her family in July, 2000, where she worked in retail. Her family and friends will fondly remember her cheerful attitude, her gentleness, and fighting spirit that kept everyone going through various ordeals, up until the very end.

The family is also deeply indebted to the medical teams both at St. Michael's Hospital and Sunnybrook's Odette Cancer Centre, for their tireless work in the fight against her disease. It is thanks to their dedication, skill, and knowledge that she stayed with us for a brief but precious year longer. The family would also like to thank the palliative care team that, with great compassion and understanding, guided Nimet through the last stage of her journey.

We are grateful to have shared a lifer journey with her and hope to keep her legacy alive by following her example. She will be greatly missed.

A memorial service will be held between 6 pm and 9 pm, on Tuesday, July 9, 2013, at the Aftercare Funeral home, 1097 O'Connor Drive, Toronto, Ontario. In lieu of flowers, a donation to the Sunnybrook Foundation in Nimet's memory would be greatly appreciated: <http://sunnybrook.ca/foundation/>.

The burial service will take place at 2 pm on Wednesday, July 10, 2013, at the Glenview Memorial Gardens, 7541 Hwy #50, Woodbridge, Ontario, after the funeral service at the Albanian Mosque, 564 Annette Street, Toronto, Ontario. For those wishing to join us for the ceremony and final farewell to the deceased, the visitation at the mosque is at 12 pm.

“ W.M.

*In your breast dwells the breath of Wisdom, Mother
You sacred root*

*Let me hold your hands
And lend them a kiss of humility*

*Your Word
Is my guiding star
Beside the two paths*

*Beneath your feet is Paradise
The long forsaken Earth*

*Purify me in Your tearful river, Mother
Where Your running brook of Compassion joins the ever-flowing
Love*

*Your leaves
Lead my eyes to the blinding Sun
Over the Thread of Faith*

*Pray for us in Heaven
Make us upright
Keep us from the rage
That runs like a bloody river*

*Let me keep your apron as a token
Cheerful Mother
The veil is lifted now to make me see
The full splendor of your smile*

*Envelop me in your Understanding
Unlock for me the levels of Life's many treasures*

*Show us our way back to the Circle
The surmounted heights
The armistice between men
The children, delivered from fear*

*Let me breathe your incense
That life which dwells hidden between your locks and your delicate neck*

*Let me keep this Earth as Home
Before it is too late...*

*And I shall lend it a kiss of humility
In hope for Peace*

“ My warmest condolences to Basha Family.

It is very hard to accept the reality that I will never see or hear Nimet again in my life. Nimet was an incredibly responsible, caring and thoughtful person. She was very close to her friends and family and had lot of people who cared about her. I can only remember with joy the days we spent together.

Moving to Canada, we comforted each other in times we had difficulties and enjoyed the good experiences as well. There were times when we laughed and times when we cried, and the best part of our friendship was that we had each other to lean on, discuss challenges, and our dreams.

Nimet was a positive person and would not want us to be sad. If she were here with us she would tell us to cheer up, smile and remember all of the great memories that we shared together. She will always remain in my heart.
