

Ms. Pamela Margaret Turner (nee deBruyn)

June 28, 2012

Passed into eternal rest in Etobicoke General Hospital, Toronto, at 51 years of age, after a valiant battle with cancer. Devoted mother of Jessica, beloved daughter of Beverley (nee Brown) of Belleville and Toronto, and Barry, of Abbotsford, BC. Pam will be sadly missed by her caring brothers Kevin (Louise) and Mark (Kathleen) and cherished nieces Kimberly and Hannah. Predeceased by her loving grandparents, Cliff Brown and Annetta Brown Green, past owner of Ontario Business College, Belleville.

Pam was born in Belleville and following in her parents' footsteps, she joined the Canadian Forces. There she trained as a cook, and discovered she had a flair for fancy baking. She later went on to graduate as a Pastry Chef in the Culinary Arts Faculty of George Brown College. Her dream was to set up her own bakery business.

As expressions of sympathy, memorial donations to the Schizophrenia Society of Ontario or the Canadian Cancer Society would be welcomed by the family.

Tribute Wall

RG

“ Dear Mark,

My most heartfelt condolences to you and your family. It must be very difficult losing a family member. I hope you and your family find comfort in the memories of the special times you shared with Pam. My deepest sympathies.

Your Friend,

Russ

Russ Gram - July 12, 2012 at 07:56 AM

KH

“ Dear Jessica,

I was so sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. The hope at John 5:28, 29 has brought me comfort when I've lost a loved one in death. It promises that "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." We can soon look forward to a time when we will see our dead loved ones again. My heart goes out to you during this difficult time. With deep sympathy,

Kerry

Kerry Hall - June 30, 2012 at 10:28 AM