

Panagiotis "Peter" Lykotrafitis

April 2, 2023

In profound loving memory,

Panagiotis 'Peter' Lykotrafitis passed away on April 2nd, 2023.

Panagiotis was born in rural Greece on July 7th, 1935. Like so many who grew up during that time period, he experienced hardship in his early life. Not to be deterred, he moved to Canada in 1963 to provide a better life for his fledgling family.

He trained as a cabinet maker in Greece. In those years, Canada and the United States were accepting skilled trades workers from other countries. Our dad decided on Canada.

Arriving in Canada and not knowing English, he immediately found work in his trade and integrated himself within the Toronto Greek community and beyond. After working as a skilled cabinet maker for many years he later decided to become a businessman.

Panagiotis owned two different fish markets and was known throughout the multicultural east end of Toronto. During the last years of his life, many customers from decades back would greet him during his daily walks and exchange happy memories.

Panagiotis loved and was proud of his Greek heritage. He had a keen interest in music and was a whimsical old-world storyteller. And, when he was in the mood, he had the sharpest sense of humour around! One thing that stood out more than anything...Panagiotis had a deep and profound love for his children and for family. His every moment was dedicated to ensuring that he provided for his children and help them lead a successful life.

Panagiotis is survived by his daughter, Helen, his son, Paul, his daughter-in-law, Sia and the mother of his children, Panagiota.

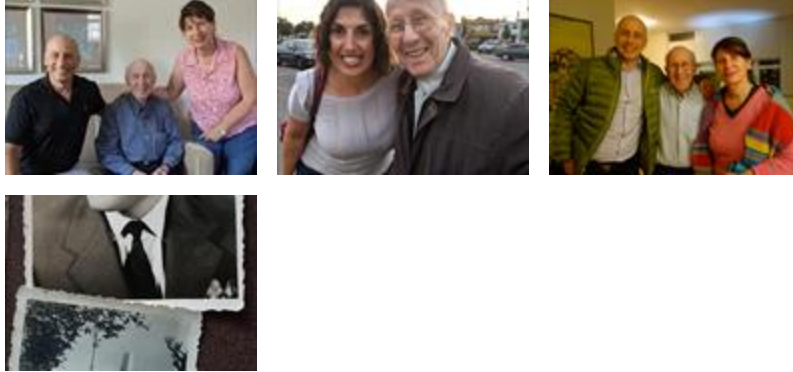

We are happy and proud to have had such a loving father, gentleman and old-world soul in our lives. There will never be another Panagiotis Lykotrafitis. He was one of a kind. The love we feel for him will remain eternal. And, his love, caring and memory will live on forever.

Ο Θεός να αναπαύσει την ψυχή του.
