My heartfelt sympathies go out to the friends and family of Patrick. I did not know him, but was on the road the day he passed away. I was the first on the scene of the accident and it was heartbreaking to know it would be hours before the family learned what I knew. If it would bring some comfort Please feel free to contact me should you have questions or would like to know more.

Such tragic circumstances and it was heartwarming to read the memories and learn about Patrick.

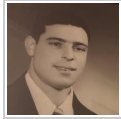

Again, heartfelt condolences at this sad time of saying farewell.
