“ This is being sent to late because I live in the United States and have only learned about this just now from an issue of the Appleby Quarterly. For the family of Mr. Josselyn, I want to express my condolences to all of you and my thanks for the impact he had on me as a person. I was lucky enough to come across him at AC as an English student and in some other capacities with drama or Powell's house study nights. You already know how amazing and positive he was as a person, but he is one of the teachers that really stands out to me as the passionate ones that people make movies about. I'm fortunate for the opportunity and feel that the world is a little bit emptier with his passing. My condolences to all of the Jocelyn family.
