

Peter Martin White

March 17, 2023

January 6, 1952 - March 17, 2023

Son of George and Florence White, and brother to Daniel, Janet (Graham), Nancy and Ellen. Also, Uncle Pete to many nieces and nephews. Peter also leaves his beloved partner, Marion Ferguson. After a ten-month battle with cancer, Peter left this earthly plane after a brief stay at Michael Garron Hospital. He was lovingly cared for by Ellen, and by Nancy and her partner, Jack Chambers. His courage and character never faltered and will be remembered always. Peter was an avid lawn bowler at Kew Beach and Cosburn Park Clubs. He loved karaoke, gardening, fishing and camping. He was a top little league pitcher for East York in his youth. A Celebration of Life will take place at The Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 11, 9 Dawes Road, Toronto on Sunday, April 23, 2023 between 2pm-6pm.

I fought the good fight

“ I just googled your name and came across your obituary. Condolences to your family. You were my good friend while we attended William Burgess Public School and Westwood Junior High. One memory is the dangerous times we would cross the the steel girders underneath Leaside Bridge, before they installed the cat walk, to find baby pigeons in their nests and take them home as pets.. young and crazy guys. I remember you as a great athlete and a tough kid. More than once you protected me from bullies. You were one of the good guys, well known and popular. Glad to see you had a wonderful life, loved by family and friends. You will always have a special place in my heart. God bless you Peter.

“ Dear Pete,

Gone but not forgotten. We are truly sad for this loss. You were courageous as you battled your illness. You are now with the angels above and other family members that have been taken away from us. Rest in peace Uncle Pete. Until we meet again.

Love always, Julia and family

“ I am greatly sorry for the loss of Peter, My condolences go out to Janet, Danny, Nancy, Ellen, Marion and the rest of the family and friends. He was a very unique person indeed. Once he was inquiring if i had any fibreglass cloth to patch a leaky boat. I told him no but i think those large potato sacks are a fibreglass like material..The next time i saw him up at his sister Nancy's house, he had the boat patched with potato sacks and he did do some fishing in that boat. Yes, he was brave going in that boat and especially brave fighting Cancer. You will be greatly missed Peter! Thank You, Colin Winter & Family.

“ It's surprising to me how difficult it is to find the words to sum up my brother's life, and what he meant to me. Peter was very close to our parents, and helped them both until they passed. He never missed a Sunday dinner at moms place, but there was no roast beef, (family joke). Peter was very well read, intelligent, and a whiz at all things trivia. He was a humble, quiet man with a good sense of humor. He played a huge part in helping me raise my son Michael until he was four, and for that I will be eternally grateful. Peter faced his terminal illness with strength, dignity, and grace and he never once complained. I will carry him forever in my heart, and am thankful I got to make his last months more bearable. Love you my big brother. You've got some poker players, and fisherman to hang out with now. Love Ellen.

Pete! I just found out your gone. We sure packed a lot of memories into our three years together witch I think of often. My heart goes out to his family that always was good to him even at the last few moths I am so glad he had you there. Nancy Jack and Ellen to his girlfriend too. he was a good guy to have in your life. I Will miss him. I hope he found a scrabble player and a bowling green to play on.

“ Peter was an avid outdoors man. He loved camping in the provincial parks with his brotherlaw Bob. They had many adventures along the way they would tell us hilarious stories about all their escapades. One of his other passions was lawn bowling and he won many prizes at competitions. He liked to play cards and shoot pool at the legion. Peter was a very gentle kind soul and I am going to miss my little brother so much. Godspeed Pete, Rest in Peace
