“ I wanted to share this poem with Randy's family in hopes that it helps with their sadness.

*Death is a word that can cause us much pain,
We watch as it makes grown men cry.
We struggle just trying to come to terms with,
The ultimate final goodbye.*

*We're never quite ready to deal with the hurt,
And heartache that tears us apart.
The loss of a loved one we cared for so much,
Leaves an empty place deep in our heart.*

*It's only our faith that will give us the courage,
And strength that we need to move on.
By reaching to others we soon will discover,
The healing that needs to be done.*

*We need to embrace all the memories made,
The laughter and even the tears,
To know that their spirit will live on forever,
Will soon conquer all of our fears.*

*So in those dark moments, when we feel alone,
And wonder how we can survive.
We might take some comfort with one gentle
Whisper.....But never a final goodbye.*

“ Dear Randy,
I am so sorry that you were sick and that you passed away at such a young age. I want to thank you for our friendship. And like some friendships we had our ups and downs but I grew to love you as a friend. I will miss you Randy, I will miss you greeting me when I get home from work, I will miss you asking me how my day was, then sitting there listening to me rant and rave, I will miss your intelligent views on life and sharing them with me, It isn't the same without you.

My heart and condolences go out to your family and siblings Susan, Jolyne, James and Richard and your best friend Marie!

*Rest In Peace my friend!

“ Randy was a very dear friend of our family. My parents were fortunate to walk Karen down the aisle when they got married. We shared a lot of memories together. Randy was taken from us too soon. Rest in peace my dear friend.
