

Mr. Richard George Hylands

November 18, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

PF

“ He was my first real friend when I started at Yonge Steeles Motors and he was parts manager. I have fond memories of the engine building and motor racing we did. I'm sure you remember the epic " Sundown"? Too late I had in mind to send him a ticket next year to come over to see the Goodwood Revival. He was my first real friend when I started at Yonge Steeles Motors and he was parts manager. I have fond memories of the engine building and motor racing we did. I'm sure you remember the epic " Sundown"? Too late I had in mind to send him a ticket next year to come over to see the Goodwood Revival. I stayed with him when I came over last year to go to the Indianapolis 500 with Jack Broad. Richard seemed fine then although he didn't eat much. However, he was quite happy to cook for me. I had us go to a diner for lunch most days.

I stayed with him when I came over last year to go to the Indianapolis 500 with Jack Broad. Richard seemed fine then although he didn't eat much. However, he was quite happy to cook for me. I had us go to a diner for lunch most days.

Paul Folkard - November 26, 2015 at 01:51 PM