

Robert George Mackenzie Clarke

February 13, 2025

Robert George Mackenzie Clarke passed away peacefully on February 13, 2025, with his son at his side, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Predeceased by his wife Freida Leppanen-Clarke, mother Barbara Clarke and father Robert Clarke. He is survived by his son Wesley Clarke, sister Colleen Clarke Huntley (Warren), brother Dan Clarke (Catherine, the late Laura), and brother Kevin Clarke (Chrissie). Loving Uncle to many nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews. Bob will be missed by his extended family and close friends.

Bob was a carpenter, pipe fitter and construction worker, who proudly built his family home. He worked for his family's business, Toronto Funeral Coach. He was also a proud member of the Canadian Armed Forces militia.

Bob loved to spend time with his family and especially enjoyed Clarke family gatherings like summer barbeques and Christmas parties. Trains and riding the rails were Bob's favourite hobby and passion.

We would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Schneider and the home care palliative team as well as the palliative care unit at Michael Garron Hospital.

He will live on in our hearts forever. We love and miss you, Bob.

“ I am deeply saddened to here of the passing of my cousin Bobby at far too young an age. My dad Graham Clarke was Bobby's God father and held Bobby in the highest regard as did I. My sincerest condolences to Wesley, Colleen, Dan and Kevin and their families.

My thoughts are with you all at this most difficult time.
