

Mr. Robert Daga

May 15, 2016

With heavy hearts we announce the peaceful passing of Robert 'Bob' Daga, father of Sandra Daga and David Daga, father-in-law to Will Woitowich and Josie Daga, granddad to Matthew, Michelle, Robby and Ellie, former husband of Audrey Daga, and good friend of Fibi Lomongo.

Bob left us May 15, 2016 at the age of 87.

Bob was a man of few words but many actions. Brave from the beginning, he escaped Latvia during WW II. He came to Canada from Europe with his wife, Audrey, and not much else. Bob put a roof over his family's head by building his own home in Sault Ste Marie then later established a life he was very proud of in Toronto. He had a love for world travel where he explored almost everything and for cottage life where he learned the virtues of doing nothing.

Head strong, but very big hearted, he will be missed dearly around the bonfire and within our lives.

“ I knew "Bob" for almost 34 years, 31 of those as his son-in-law. He gave me his blessing to marry his wonderful daughter and we were blessed with bringing two wonderful grandchildren into his life. They grew up with all the joys a grandfather can bring and had a great time at the cottage. I recall many evening around the bonfires at times just listening to the loons and viewing the stars and milky way. Also lots of BBQ's and all the good hard work renovating a cottage and clearing old stumps. Thanks for letting me be your son-in-law. Thanks Dad, Be Good! Will Waitowich

“ May you be at peace now, Mr. Daga (Robert). Thank you for giving me such a fine friend, Sandra, your beloved Daughter. The corn roasts at your cottage were most memorable-thank you!!! Christine Williams xo

“ I have cherished memories of my Grandad at his favourite place - the cottage he owned on Canal Lake where he spent time on the dock and porch, fishing and BBQing in the hot days of June, July and August. I will always remember my time here with him - from his stories by the fire to his pride of the place he loved the most surrounded by dear friends and family.

I will miss you, Grandad. Rest in Peace.
