“ Linda, Andrew & Robert,
Your dad was more than a cousin to me; he represented one of my last links to Scotland and I was stunned to hear of his death, as it had seemed that he was doing well post-surgery. I'll always remember him and the great love story that was his and your mom's marriage. From the time he and your mom first arrived in Canada, they were examples of how best to live life and this was clear in the artwork they created and the family they raised.

“ Andrew, I was sorry to hear of your dad's sudden passing. I would like to extend my sincerest condolences to you and your family. Though I did not know your dad, Eric spoke of him very highly, May good memories soothe your sorrow at this moment.

“ I first met Bob and Gerda through the Tai Chi classes at East Toronto Seniors. Bob was a very friendly and kind man and he and Gerda were a wonderful couple. They worked hard to make sure that the tai chi classes continued after the centre closed. I got to know Bob better after we went on a few trips to Gananoque. He enjoyed himself there, despite the fact that by this time he had lost Gerda. I only regret that I did not make the effort to get in touch with him before he passed away. Although I do not know his family, he often spoke of them and was very proud of their accomplishments and I would like to pass on my condolences to you on your loss. I have some idea of what this is like as I lost my dear mother and husband in the same year

It will take some time to accept that I'm not going to see Bob on a Wednesday morning at the tai chi class which I instruct. Seeing Bob always brought a smile to my face and I know he had this effect on the others in the group. Bob always received and gave hugs, kisses from everyone. We loved him as we loved Gerda. I know I speak for the group when I say that our Wednesdays will be different now and a little less sunny. I will miss those jokes that came out of left field and the twinkle in his eye when he knew he'd caught me out again. To the family...what a lovely dad and grandad you had - thank you for sharing him with us.
with love
