“ I am still in shock of the passing of my friend Rob, I have known Rob and worked with him for many years, I found Rob during his position at CPC Gateway to be a highly professional individual, on a another note, I found him to be honest and sensitive to his coworkers and sub trades, he will be sadly missed from everyone that he touched personally,
Rob, we will always remember the stories that you had about your furry friends,
Rest In Peace my friend,
Cheers Tom

“ I first met Rob in March 2017 when I joined JLL at the Gateway facility. We developed a close professional relationship and he was a big source of information during my early days with the company. We also formed a close personal bond and I frequently accompanied him when he went outside for his occasional smoking session. Even after I left that location we maintained contact and we would call each other for a "catch up" on both business and personal matters. I will miss his words of wisdom on various matters.
Rest in peace my friend!

“ Rob and I first met in 2013 during a job interview, and soon became not only colleagues, but friends. Constantly talking about our fur babies, Rob's love for his dogs. I will miss Rob's sense of humour, and our working together at JLL. Both on the Novartis/Alcon account and then as we both moved onto the Canada Post Account. My condolences to Linda and the rest of the family, and especially Rob's devoted pets. RIP Rob, Sending Light from Cheryl Kydd

“ Mark and I had few good laughs with Bob sitting in their "Porta Backyarda". He would often have funny stories to tell us, an abundance of delicious food and never an empty wine glass. He always made us feel welcome.

“ My condolence to the family
I didn't know Bob well and only met him several times. One of those times was in 2019 at the Wiener-Paw-Looza event. It was a fun and memorable day had by all.
