“ I worked with Bob for several years at Mt Forest. His formidable presence and gentle nature was unique. I'll forever treasure our last opportunity to visit briefly a couple years ago. My deepest condolences to Jan, Craig and family.

“ I didn't know Bob well, but I vaguely recall him being sent from Newcastle one night to assist/supervise a call north of Cobourg involving a barricaded person. After waiting for as long as he thought prudent, he went into the house and picked up the (probably drunken) young man around the head and shoulders and carried him outside to those waiting to arrest him. Very much old time policing, but it got the job done with no further issues. I'm glad he got to enjoy a long retirement. May he rest in peace.

“ Bob was a good friend to so many and will surely be missed. He was always there to help with a ride or in any other way, He didn't care to travel but was very knowledgable. He and Jan were a fine couple.
