Robert William Pascoe Obituary (January 18, 1942 - July 30, 2023)

Robert William Pascoe, affectionately known as Bob, passed away on July 30, 2023, leaving behind cherished memories and an enduring legacy.

Bob was a true force in the film industry, earning the endearing nickname "one-more time, Bob" due to his unmatched work ethic and unwavering commitment to perfection. His passion for art extended beyond commercials and directing, and he was known for his love of painting.

Alongside his creative pursuits, Bob's stubborn personality was well-known to those close to him. It was this very determination that fueled his success in both his career and personal life.

Beyond his work, Bob found solace in spending summers at his cottage on Kitty Island at Crane Lake, relishing the beauty of nature and the tranquility it offered.

Family was at the heart of his life, and he deeply loved his wife, Judy, his son Aidan (Alison), and his daughter Avery (Luis) de Camargo. He was a loving grandfather to Freya and Esme Pascoe, and his loyal companion, his dog Raffi, brought him joy and comfort.

Bob's legacy is one of unmatched dedication, artistic passion, and a stubborn spirit that left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered.

The family would like to thank the staff at Toronto General Hospital for their kindness and compassion during his final week.

“ I have known Bob for over 60 years. We met at CFTO-TV in the 60's. When I was a producer at a couple of ad agencies, Bob provided facilities and creative for TV commercials, through his company PASCOE productions, delivering the high standard product required in this competitive business. We travelled together extensively, and I shared his many wonderful qualities. After we had know each other for about 4 years, we discovered our birthdays were on the same day in January, although we were 5 years apart in age. Not something guys usually talk about! For years we met for an anniversary lunch in January. If the lunch date was on a odd year date, I paid the bill, and if it was on an even year date, Bob picked up the tab...
Bob - one-of-a-kind.
Will miss you dear friend.

“ Bob was like a superhero to me when I was a kid. I was truly and deeply enamored with him. He always took the time to make me feel special and seen. He taught me how to cheat at cards and gave me my nickname Tex - well Uncle Al helped too. 2 of my most favourite men together again. My sincere condolences to Judy, Aiden, Avery and all his loving family and friends. Rest well dear Bob xo
