ROBERT D. WILSON (1944 – 2019)

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Bob Wilson on Sunday, March 17, peacefully and surrounded by his family. He will be greatly missed by his wife Anne, brother John (Karen), children Michael and Julie (Xavier), and his granddaughter Justine, along with family and friends.

Bob grew up in Fergus, ON, son of Eva and J.D. Wilson. He graduated from U of T (Knox College residence), and Osgoode Hall Law School. He practised civil litigation law at Bassel Sullivan for many years, followed by 16 years at LawPro until his retirement. Bob loved hockey and was an avid fan, player and dedicated coach, helping to train numerous young players in North Toronto over the years. Bob was a sports enthusiast, an avid reader and enjoyed listening to jazz music.

A celebration of Bob's life will be held on Saturday, March 23, 2019 from 2 to 5 p.m. at Vaughan Estate, Estates of Sunnybrook, 80 Armistice Drive, Toronto, ON.

“ Dear Anne, and family, I was notified by Rod Ferguson about the death of our dear school chum, Bob. I went to school in Fergus, from Grade 3 to Grade 13, and shared many fun memories with Bob, Rod, and David Russell, and many others, during that time. I remember Bob as a fine guy, smart, and with a great sense of humour. I wish I had seen him in the intervening years, and met all your family. I live on Protection Island, off Nanaimo, on Vancouver Island, so I will not be able to attend Bob's funeral tomorrow. My thoughts and sympathy are with you all. Blessings. Marian Luxton

“ My deepest condolences to you Anne, Julie and Micheal and family. Bob was such a gentleman. Always a smile on hand. Take care of each other, and hope you get through this difficult time together.
Best of Regards
Mary Giroux.

“ Nous pensons beaucoup à vous dans ces moments difficiles, notre éloignement fait que nous ne pourrons être prêts de vous. Nous nous rappellerons les bons moments passés avec Bob. Nous vous embrassons tous et sommes avec vous par la pensée pour traverser cette terrible épreuve .

Sincères condoléances

“ Bob, I will forever remember how welcoming you always were to me in my 20's, and then to my husband in my 30's, then to my family in my 40's. This summer at the cottage you played with Max on the front porch of Acorn Manor. The sun was beautiful, your smile so intent and his laugh, so loud. I will remember many, many things about you, a great man, lost too early. But this one, I will treasure forever, as I treasure you.

Thanks for sharing all your warmth.

Much love,

“ I knew Bob from his time at LawPro. I had the privilege of working with him on complicated files. Bob was a delight to have as an instructing Claims Counsel. He was a consummate professional, incisive and decisive. When all was said and done he and I would enjoy a beer together and talk about the Leafs. Sorry to hear that he is no longer around to root for the team this season.
