“ My condolences at this difficult time. I may have not known Rob personally but through the beautiful joyous loving stories from my dear loving girl Kim, his grand-daughter, what a beautiful husband, grandpa, father & man he was. From Darlene Carnegie

“ As a physician who knew Rob over the past twenty years, Rob was always a ray of light and laughter in the clinic. Even when he came in the clinic wearing his uniform as a court officer, waiting patients would never be intimidated, but rather would be reassured and drawn to his smiling, congenial persona. I was also able to see the love and pride that he had for his family. Last month Rob told me that I would miss him when he's gone. He was very right; I will miss the laughs we shared as we dealt with health matters on this journey of life. Dr. Ronald H. Cox

“ I met Robin (Rob) on Keele Street where Gail met him and my mom worked with him. Some of my fondest memories were the lunches I shared with Rob and my mom. The jokes and laughs we shared of course told by Rob. Also the times I would visit Gail and Rob early on in there marriage at there apartment and we would play trivial pursuit. Of course I never won. Even though we did not see each other often when the boys came along I thought often of both Gail and Rob. He was a wonderful man and I was happy to have known him. To the family, my condolences at this difficult time. Donna

“ Gail and family, I'm so sorry to hear about Rob's passing. Such a sad time. I worked with Rob for a number of years and have many memories to chuckle at as well . Like the time i asked him to water the plants in my office while I was away and he told me when I got back how he crawled up on the bookcase to water the plant on the top - the artificial plant!

Gail, I lost Ted on December 14th and would love to be in touch with you. My address is eeldridge1@icloud.com when you feel up to it.

My condolences and sincerest sympathies to all. Bev

“ Robin was a wonderful man that I had the pleasure of meeting and becoming friends with when he married my good friend Gail. He brought such happiness to her and the kids and built a wonderful world for their family to grow. My mom who worked with him loved him as well. She would tell us stories all the time as did he of antics and experiences with his job. Although we didn't visit often, whenever we got together it was like we had never been apart. He was a kind generous man who I always will remember with a smile on his face. My deepest sympathy to the whole family. I am so moved by your loss.

“ My Grandpa was my go to. If ever I needed anything he was there. He had answers to all the questions you could ask, I couldn't count how many times something came up in life that I didn't know the answer to and right away it would be "let me call grandpa, he'll know". As all the women in his life know if you had a ponytail in you could bet he'd pull it. Everyone close to us knows the story (he told it all the time :P) but once when I was a kid he pulled my ponytail and my fake hair extensions came right out in his hand! Scared him to death!! Still makes me laugh to think of that day and the many times we reminisced on the story. It hasn't fully set in yet that he's not with us anymore but for some reason I just keep thinking who's going to eat the leg from the turkey at family dinner and who's going to eat the end piece of the ham that no one else wants but he loved. He was an amazing husband to Nana and I can only hope to have half the relationship they have. He was also an amazing father to my dad and uncles and an even better grandpa and great grandpa to us and our kiddies. Although he was fighting cancer it doesn't make it any easier to say goodbye. It's impossible to put into words a farewell to someone who had such a strong daily impact in mine and the family's lives. I will forever miss you Grandpa. Rest In Peace ❤️
