

Roger Leo Fex

July 15, 2023

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Roger Leo Fex, 66, of Toronto, on July 15th, 2023. Roger was born on Nov 6th, 1956 to Fern & Raymonde Fex of Blezard Valley, Ontario. After attending high school at Confederation High School in Val Caron and St Charles College in Sudbury, Roger went on to Cambrian College to study journalism.

Roger was a creative, entrepreneurial and generous person who spent his life supporting, creating and promoting music. He started a Sudbury based rock concert company in the 1980's called Stonewheel Productions, responsible for many local rock concerts and best known for the Hillbilly Cornroast Festivals that ran for several years and supported local charities.

Roger was a talented film maker who worked closely with the Adetuyi brothers (Innercity Films) on screen writing, music scores and film production over many collaborations. Roger won 2 awards: a Gemini award in 2001 for Skin Deep and a Golden Sheath award for Survivors in 1993. In total, Roger worked on over a dozen films. Roger also ran his own recording studio, Spotted Kow Productions, in Toronto for over 20 years.

Roger was a world traveler and loved to meet people. He made friends wherever he went. He was also a spiritual man and a devout Catholic.

Roger was predeceased by his brother Cyril, his sister Elaine and his partner Ping Kelly. He is survived by his siblings Normand, Conrad, Monique, Denise, Colette & John and by his daughter Angela Frid.

A funeral mass will be held on Wednesday August 9th at 10am at Our Lady of Lourdes church at 520 Sherbourne Street in downtown Toronto. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to cancer research.
