

Mr. Ronald Alfred Charlong

June 27, 2013

Passed away June 27, 2013 at age 66, surrounded by his loving family after a heroic battle with cancer. Beloved husband of Barb, loving father to Dennis (Violet) and Mark (Crystal). Proud grandfather to Mitch, Taylor, Connor, River, Brody, Donovan and Jordyn. Will be sadly missed by his mother Germaine and father Gordan (deceased), brothers Jack and Doug, sisters Maureen and Betty (deceased), mother in law Marjorie and Roy (deceased) and brother in law to Penny (Tom) and Sue (Barry).

As per Ron's wishes cremation has taken place. If desired, memorial donations to the charity of your choice would be sincerely appreciated by the family.

“ My Condolences to Ronald's family (Marvin) I never knew him as Ronald,always Marvin, Marvin used to visit New Brunswick every year with his Brother Jack and sister Maureen, we were all about the same age and we spent many summers swimming and having fun, our Grandfather's were brother's (Frank & Vincent) We had a cookie factory called Marvin's Biscuits and of course we used to tease Marvin and he hated his name so I was not surprised that Marvin changed his name. RIP Ronald (Marvin) Charlong. ”

“ My greatest. Memories of my uncle Ron were his ability to make me and everyone laugh no matter the mood he had that personality that was always in good mood crackin jokes poking fun out of anything he saw or people he talked to never had bad day round him and will also miss his ability to make anyone smile no matter what was goin on he was one of those people that never took life for granted he loved life enjoyed everythin he had. And people he had in his life kno his best times were when hed pick up his guitar either be accustic or his steel gutair and jam for hours and sing that's what i remember most bout my uncle Ron on closing i wanna say he has always been the kinda person who's always been there for people and would give u the shirt off his back if u needed it wanna say uncle Ron love u and i miss u and thanks for the memories and thanks for helping to raise me and moulding me in to man i am, today ill never forget our conversations or everything uv taught. Me over years ur always n forever will, be in my thoughts and in my heart forever hope 1 day i can be half man u were love u from, ur nephew. TOMMY Til we meet again love u
