

Mrs. Rose Brown

May 29, 2013

This beautiful, warm and vivacious woman died at Mt Sinai Hospital in Toronto on May 29, 2013. Until the very end, her friends were treated to her infectious chuckle and quick wit. Although her body could no longer fight the ravages of the many illnesses that plagued her during life, her spirit lives on in the many memories she left with her friends and relatives . Predeceased by her parents, she leaves behind a brother, Philip and is mourned deeply by Sandi, Brad and Kyle.
