“ I have SO many memories with papa. Picking me up, I was always at their house, Katie and Rosie, flicking his cheek, seeking me peanuts, his whistle, his laugh, the tricks he showed me, his smile, his presence, his endless love, Dooley, his truck, his hugs, his wisdom.

My favourite memory is him planting my first Tulip in memory of Tamara. I love him so much!!! My heart is broken!!! 🥹💔💔💔

“ Hey Dad,

I hope you're planting a beautiful garden up in heaven and that you and your buddy Terry are off on another fishing adventure. Say hi to Santa for me, will ya!!

You have no idea how much I'm going to miss you. Taking care of you these last few years was something I truly cherished. I always looked forward to visiting you, listening to your stories, and laughing at your antics.

You were so strong, Dad. You showed Parkinson's the door and faced it with the strength of a bull for so many years before you were called home. Your strength will always remind me to stay positive and to focus on the good things in life, to love deeply, because time is just a number and life is short.

Thank you for everything you did for me, even when you didn't have to. And thank you for being the best Papa to Jessica, your the last surviving Papa, and definitely her favourite. (We might be a little biased!)

*I love you, Dad.....I can already hear your response from here.....
"Right back atcha!"*

Rest easy, Dad. Cheers 🍺

Love always and forever
