Ruby Ruth Foster was born in Toronto on Nov 30, 1939 to Evelyn Black and Edward Albert Foster. Ruby died on March 18, 2016 from cancer. Ruby is survived by her sons Gregory and Patrick Commisso, her granddaughter Katherine Commisso, her brother Douglas Foster, her nieces Leanne and Lindsay, and their children Olivia, Isla, Erin, Liam, Aidan, and Anthony.

Ruby was loved very much and will be missed by all. We remember her as the vibrant and outgoing person that she was, and all of our memories of her, bring a smile to our face.

Ruby requested that her remains be cremated and a private ceremony be held for her family, where her remains will be buried with her late mother Evelyn. Ruby's family thanks everyone for their outpouring of love and caring.

“ Dear auntie Ruby, I still can't believe that you are gone words can't describe how much you will be missed. I look back at the last 3 years and the ammount of time I've been able to spend with you and I am so grateful. You've taught me so very much and I will never forget all the stories you shared with me. You had an infectious smile and brought joy wherever you went. I love you so much and will forever miss you and will never ever forget you. Rest in peace <3

“Ruby and I have been friends for more than 30 years. We met initially at Rooneys In the 70's and again when we were both selling real estate with the same broker in the mid 80's. From then on, we were close friends who went through thick and thin together. Ruby and I used to go shopping together often. As soon as she went through the store's door, she was off and running and difficult to find. That was typical Ruby. We went through a lot together, both good and bad. Every phone call ended with her telling me how much she loved me. She was a dedicated friend. I'm still reaching for the phone to hear her voice and then it hits me that she's gone. I miss her and her zany ways and the fun we had for so many years. I miss her laughter and her opinions. Ruby my sweet friend I still feel your love. I will always miss you my friend. I hope we will meet again someday Ruby. In the meantime rest in peace and know that you are missed. 🌸🌸🌻🌹

love you Ruby, Rhonda
