Sally Ann Brooks (nee Foster) – Dec 1, 1947 – July 27, 2024

Sally left us suddenly and unexpectedly on Saturday July 27 at Sunnybrook Hospital.

Pre-deceased by her husband Gerard Sidney Michael Brooks, her mother Jocelyn, and her father Andrew. Loving godmother to Megan Fraser.

Sally often stated that she had a wonderful life, and she did. She grew up in Toronto, attended Bishop Strachan School and spent many happy summers as a teenager at Camp Tanamakoon in Algonquin Park. Along the way she made many lifelong friends.

Sally and Gerry married on May 22, 1981. They loved to travel, especially to Florida and Big Bay Point. They loved their many miniature Schnauzers, fine dining, going to the cottage, and entertaining in their home. Sally was a great cook and a generous and consummate hostess.

Sally had a wicked sense of humour and was a fun person to be around as her many friends over the years will attest.

In recent years, Sally had many challenges and obstacles to overcome, and she did so with grace, humour, and dignity. Her stoicism and strength in the face of adversity were truly admirable.

Private cremation has taken place. A celebration of life will take place at a future date. Donations in memory of Sally can be made to any animal charity of your choice.

“ My wife and I only met Sally less than a month ago and instantly took a liking to her. We found Sally funny, kind, stoic and just a very cool fashionable woman. She also helped my Mom out and made her feel comfortable. It is deeply appreciated. We were just getting to know her and looking forward to having her as a great friend. Our deepest sympathies to the family. You will always be in our thoughts Sally.
