“ Aunt Sandra and Uncle Bert were always the nicest people to me. I lived visiting them i Toronto and enjoyed their backyard. Aunt Sandra always reminded me on my Nana and made me laugh.

“ Growing up, I lived two doors over from the Gassons. I babysat Bruce, Karen and Scott a few times, and I remember they had a cat that would sit on command. Bruce would say sit and the cat would sit. Such a nice family. I'd see Mr & Mrs Gasson walking together, and even back then, there always seemed to be a quiet happiness between them, always smiling at each other. After I moved away, I'd run into your parents at Dr Lang's office and we'd reminisce and Sandra would tell me how her kids are. Sandra and I recently connected through social media, sadly we didn't get to visit, but I'll always remember Sandra as a very kind, gentle woman who loved her family with a quiet everlasting love and strength. My condolences to Bruce, Karen, Scott & family.
