“ I was very lucky to get to know Sean prior to his move to The Carriage House. We were upstairs/downstairs neighbours. He was one of the kindest people I’ve ever met. He always had lots of stories to share. So many of his daughter who he loved so very much. RIP Sean. I’m happy that you are at peace and reunited with your family.

“ I remember one summer he came home to Stephenville with a red sportscar and took me for a ride in it and teased me mercilessly, saying things like “I heard your Mom got married. What’s your new name now? Kristina ChasingBoys?” He was such a fun cousin.
