“ I am very sorry to Vicki, Jamie, Ryan, Joan, Headly & Megan, along with the rest of Spencer's kind and generous family for the loss of Spencer.

Spencer and i were very close for quite some time. If there was anything i knew about Spencer it was that he was a selfless man who loved to help and give to others. He was smart, hardworking and had great ambition towards life in general. It was nearly impossible to be around Spencer and not learn a lot from him.

The loss of, Spencer is nothing less than tragic, for a man who was so irreplaceable and unique. I know that Spencer is somewhere up there revving his engine and driving around that big red Dodge!

Rest in peace, my old friend.

“ Vicki, Jamie & Ryan,

I am so sorry for your loss. Spencer was a cherished part of Sunday night dinners with my family. I will always miss his relaxed personality, infectious sweet smile and sense of humour. It is a testament to how you raised him as such a kind and hardworking son.

It was so beautiful to see the love that Spencer and Megan shared. He truly made her so happy; they were such a good fit. I am so happy for the time they were able to share together.

He will never be forgotten but always missed by the Dilworth/Juul Family.

“ Our hearts are broken at the loss of Spencer. He was one of a kind. He loved and respected my Megan deeply which I will cherish always. Vicki, you and Jamie should be so proud to have raised such a kind, always helpful and completely decent human being. I knew from the moment I met him that he was a keeper.

Chris and I loved every moment spent with him. His four beer limit and his pacing my floors while telling stories will forever be with us.

Our deepest sympathy to you both, Ryan and the rest of your family.

“ When I ran the Talent Show at JG Workman, Spencer's act was the hit. He brought his unicycle and we had two tall kids turn a very long boat rope. Spencer skipped the turning rope with his unicycle, and then did even more tricks pedaling around. He stole the show. All of the teachers at JG Workman really enjoyed having Spencer and his brother Ryan when they came to our school. Your sadness is shared by us all.
