“ My uncle Steve was a very special person in my life. He taught me alot about Hungary, about what it was like to be from another country and about true family love. I cannot put into words how much I will miss his corny jokes and his big hugs. Uncle Steve, you are in spirit now but accomplished alot in this life and survived. I will be with you again in spirit when it is time. Until then you will be with me in my heart.

“ Dear Andrea,
I would like to share this clipping by Canon Henry Scott Holland that really resonated with me when I read it years ago.
"Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used to. Put no difference in your tone. wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner. All is well."
Steve, you will be missed but never forgotten. God Bless!
