

Mr. Steven Gregory Kurtz

January 3, 2014

Dec 29, 1967 – Jan 3, 2014

Passed away peacefully at St Michael's Hospital, Toronto surrounded by his family and friends. He is survived by his partner of twenty years, Patrick . He was born in Toronto ; he spent his later childhood and teenage years growing up in the Haliburton Highlands, before relocating back to Toronto. He was a registered nutrition consultant; he owned and operated a naturopathic pharmacy in the Queen West area of Toronto till the early 2000 ; he was invited as a guest speaker for natural health remedies on major TV networks on many occasions. He lived his final years as an artist ;organic gardener and a jewelery maker. He graduated with a bachelor degree of fine art in sculpture installation from OCAD University. He was very passionate about using his hands to create beauty and held a strong passion for nature and all things natural. He is a very spiritual individual deeply missed by many including Patrick, Collin, Lisa, Valerie, Miles, Gail, Gordon, his friends from OCAD and many more that he has healed, helped and made laugh along the way. Any donations can be made in honour of Steven at OCAD University. His partner can be reached at 416 585 9593.

“ I am so sorry for your loss Patrick .. Steven's passing has broken so many of our hearts cause Steven loved & was loved by so many friends & friends for life were (since 1985 for myself) Steven was like a big brother to me even though we were so far apart for way to long .. My heart goes out to Patrick his long time very good friend who is devastated by this loss , Special Thanks to Patrick & Colin who were at Stevens bedside when he passed away .. I miss you so much Steven & will always love you your little brother type friend Gordon Pierce , Big HUGS to Patrick

“ I attended OCADU with Steven. We, both sculptors, were in many of the same classes. He was a wonderful person and such a sweet and caring soul. I can hardly believe he's gone. Maybe one day we can finally get together for that coffee somewhere in the afterlife.
