“ I have just stumbled on this obituary today (Dec 22, 2025). Her passing saddens me. I was so sorry to discover this as Jazzmin (as I knew her) was and exceptionally gifted singer and composer. Jazzmin sang backup vocals on a number of my compositions through the years for which I am eternally grateful. We unfortunately lost track of each other quite a few years ago and I always wondered what happened to her. I moved to Ecuador in 2016 and heard nothing of her death.

“ I remember Jazzy's lip stick. I loved when I would see her and her glowing skin and she would plant a big kiss on me and it would be there all day. I also remember her beautiful voice . I miss her and love her I
