

Mrs. Susan Drake Masters

November 11, 2012

Born Hamilton, Ont., 1952; died peacefully at home in Brooklin, Ont., Sunday, November 11, 2012, of complications from diabetes. Graduate of Simon Fraser University. World traveller. Gourmet cook. Exercise instructor. Doll maker. Chatelaine.

Survived by her loving husband Ian Gordon Masters. Beloved daughter of Hugh and Dorothy (Knapman) Drake of Toronto; sister of Julia Drake (John Reardon) of Toronto, Christine Drake of Calgary, and Sarah Tinney (Bill) of Victoria, BC. Loving aunt of Kiva Reardon (Toronto), Rebecca Wellwood (Victoria, BC), Keltie Wellwood (Vancouver), Ella Wright (Calgary), and Angus Wright (Nelson, BC).

My candle burns at both ends;
It will not last the night;
But, ah, my foes, and, oh, my friends —
It gives a lovely light.
—Edna St. Vincent Millay, 1920

At Susan's request, no service will be held. Cremation has taken place.
